DECISION AND DIRECTION OF ELECTION

Upon a petition duly filed under Section 9(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, herein called the Act, as amended, a hearing was held before Marcia E. Adams, a Hearing Officer of the National Labor Relations Board, herein called the Board.

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 3(b) of the Act, the Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to the undersigned:

Upon the entire record in this proceeding, the undersigned finds:

1. The Hearing Officer's rulings made at the hearing are free from prejudicial error and hereby are affirmed.

2. The parties stipulated that 4C Foods Corp., herein called the Employer, a domestic corporation with its principal office and place of business located at 580 Fountain Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, herein called its Brooklyn facility, has been engaged in the business of processing breadcrumbs, cheese, soups and iced tea. During the past year, which period is representative of its annual operations generally, the Employer, in the course and conduct of its business operations, purchased and received at its Brooklyn facility, supplies and materials valued in excess of $50,000 directly from points outside the State of New York.

Based on the stipulation of the parties, and the record as a whole, I find that the Employer is engaged in commerce within the meaning of the Act, and it will effectuate the purposes of the Act to assert jurisdiction herein.

3. The labor organizations involved herein claim to represent certain employees of the Employer.

4. A question affecting commerce exists concerning the representation of certain employees of the Employer within the meaning of Section 9(c)(1) and Section 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

5. The parties stipulated, and I find, that the following unit is appropriate for the purposes of collective bargaining:

All full-time and regular part-time chauffeurs, maintenance and utility employees employed by the Employer at its 580 Fountain Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, facility, but excluding all clerical employees, managers, salespeople, directors, officers, mechanics, guards and supervisors as defined in Section 2(11) of the Act.

DIRECTION OF ELECTION

An election by secret ballot shall be conducted by the undersigned among the employees in the unit found appropriate at the time and place set forth in the notice of election to be issued subsequently subject to the Board's Rules and Regulations. Eligible to vote are employees in the unit who were employed during the payroll period ending immediately preceding the date of this Decision, including employees who did not work during that period because they were ill, on vacation or temporarily laid off. Employees engaged in any economic strike, who have retained their status as strikers and who have not been permanently replaced, are also eligible to vote. In addition, in an economic strike which commenced less than 12 months before the election date, employees engaged in such strike who have retained their status as strikers but who have been permanently replaced, as well as their replacements, are eligible to vote. Those in the military services of the United States who are employed in the unit may vote if they appear in person or at the polls. Ineligible to vote are employees who have quit or been discharged for cause since the designated payroll period, employees engaged in a strike who have been discharged for cause since the commencement thereof and who have not been rehired or reinstated before the election date and employees engaged in an economic strike which commenced more than 12 months before the election date and who have been permanently replaced. Those eligible to vote shall vote whether they desire to be represented for collective bargaining purposes by Local 971, International Shield of Labor Alliances, Local 277, by International Brotherhood of Teamsters, AFL-CIO, or by neither labor organization.

LIST OF VOTERS

In order to assure that all eligible voters may have the opportunity to be informed of the issues in the exercise of the statutory right to vote, all parties to the election should have access to a list of voters and their addresses that may be used to communicate with them. Excelsior Underwear, Inc., 156 NLRB 1236 (1966); *N.L.R.B. v. No extension of time to file the list may be granted, nor shall the filing of a request for review operate to stay the filing of such list except in extraordinary circumstances. Failure to comply with this requirement shall be grounds for setting aside the election whenever proper objections are filed.
